WILSON TO STUMP DOUBTFUL STATES

Democratic Nominee Gives Up Idea of Making "Dignified" Stay-at-home Campaign.

MAINE FIRST STATE ON TOUR OF NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR

New York, Missouri, Indiana, Alabama, and Ohio Also Included on Speaking Trip.

Seagirt, N. J., July 25.—Contrary to his original intention, Gov. Woodrow Wilson will not conduct a "dignified" stay-at-home campaign for the Presidency, though many of his friends have advised this course. The Governor will profit by the experience of Judge Parker, who, when nominated for the Presidency in 1904 remained at Esopus for the better part of the campaign, going to New York only when the fight seemed to be lost.

Gov. Wilson has been asked to deliver his keynote speech in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, but he will probably be unable to do this, though New York State will come in for a lot of his attention later on. The Governor will first go to Maine, where the election takes place on the first Tuesday in September. With Gov. Plafied, who will undoubtedly be a candidate for re-election, Gov. Wilson will make a thorough tour of that State in the hope of carrying Maine and thus encouraging the other doubtful States to fall in line. To carry Maine by a substantial vote would be equivalent to a victory in a national election. Maine is generally Republican by a safe margin. Even if Plafied should be defeated for re-election, a good showing would be a hopeful sign. Gov. Wilson will probably go to Maine the second or third week in August.

To Speak in New York.
The first New York speech will be delivered in the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, as soon as the Maine election has been disposed of. Despite Gov. Wilson's official attitude of noninterference in State situations, his friends say that he will take more than a passing interest in the State nominations in New York. He has had a number of conferences with Senator O'Gorman with respect to these. O'Gorman is on friendly terms with Thomas Mott Osborne and his associates, who are trying to wrest control of the State from Tammany Leader Murphy and defeat Gov. Dix for renomination.

If Wilson is elected O'Gorman as the United States Senator will supervise the distribution of Federal patronage. Wilson, it is said, has a notion that with the help of this patronage he can ultimately make O'Gorman the State leader. In the meanwhile, however, O'Gorman's function will be to harmonize the conflicting elements in the State, and force the nomination of a man who will advance rather than retard Wilson's election. Wilson's friends say it would be a light on the Presidential ticket to have an indifferent candidate running for Governor in New York. It is an important State and is giving Wilson a lot of anxiety.

Republican Fight Heats.
Wilson's friends count on the Democratic nominee profiting greatly by the bitter fight that will doubtless be waged by Barnes and Roosevelt. Barnes, who was responsible for Roosevelt's defeat in the Chicago convention, will be the object of the Roosevelt attack, and, of course, Barnes will retaliate. It is hoped that the effect will be to disgust Republican voters and force them into the Democratic party.

Gov. Wilson will stump Connecticut in company with Gov. Simon E. Baldwin. He will tour Missouri with Speaker Champ Clark, in order to assure the country that he and his most important convention adversary are on the most friendly terms. The same policy will be pursued with Oscar W. Underwood, only of course, it will be necessary to make a hard fight to so safely a Democratic State as Alabama. Indiana will be stumped by Gov. Thomas R. Marshall, the Vice Presidential nominee. Gov. Marshall is much of an orator, but the voters will want to see him. In Ohio, Wilson and Gov. Judson Harmon will join forces and appear jointly at the big rallies.

During the period intervening between the official notification on August 5 and the opening of the fight in Maine, Wilson's time will be largely occupied in conference with the various State leaders.

Pay for Labor Day.
A holiday on Labor Day, without having their salaries "docked," is proposed for government employees in navy yards and in the Government Printing Office, in a bill introduced by the House by Representative Redfield of New Jersey. Redfield insists the employees should receive their regular pay on Labor Day, instead of being forced to celebrate at their own expense.

Want Brown's Assistance.
The seven "prosecutors" of the House Judiciary Committee, in charge of the trial in the Senate of Judge Archibald, today decided to request Attorney General Wickersham to appoint Wesley Brown, an assistant attorney general, to assist them in conducting the trial. Brown conducted the preliminary investigation of Archibald.

Report Deficiency Bill.
Carrying appropriations of $5,182,534, the last appropriation bill before the House today by the House appropriations committee. The committee pruned the bill to the extent of $5,000,000 from the amounts asked.

TEEDY'S ELECTORS ON THIRD TICKET

Bull Moose Leaders Hit on Plan to Run Progressive Campaign in Roosevelt States.

STATE OFFICE CANDIDATES TO GO ON ROOSEVELT LIST

Lieut. Gov. Gordon, of Minnesota, Tells Colonel that State Is for Him.

Oyster Bay, July 25.—The method of running the third party ticket next fall in States where the progressive party is dominant was revealed today by Col. Roosevelt. The inclination of the Roosevelt leaders all along has been to ignore President Taft as the regular nominee of the Republican party and to put the colonel at the head of the Republican ticket in every one of the progressive States. Investigation of the State laws have shown their scheme cannot be worked out.

To get around the inextinguishable law, the Bull Moose leaders have hit upon the idea of putting the Roosevelt electors, in each of the progressive States, upon a third ticket and trailing along with all the candidates for State and Congressional offices which in every instance will be Roosevelt men.

Roosevelt disclosed the third party scheme after a talk with Lieut. Gov. Gordon of Minnesota, who visited Sagamore Hill to see what the colonel wanted done about the ticket there.

To Have Third Ticket.
"In Minnesota, as well as in Kansas, Idaho, California, and Washington, we are to have Roosevelt electors run upon the third ticket," said the colonel.

"The laws in each of these States prevent the Republican ballot. The leaders in those States insist that I am entitled to head the Republican ticket. They wanted to have me at the top of their Republican ticket as a rebuke to the forces that stole the nomination for President Taft."

To Support Progressives.
"I shall support every progressive candidate who is thus named on the national progressive party's ticket. In turn, every progressive candidate will support the electors on my ticket."

Lieut. Gov. Gordon talked encouragingly to the colonel about conditions in Minnesota.

"No trouble to beat Wilson and Taft in Minnesota," said Gordon before going to the Hill Top to see the former President.

"Roosevelt has the State three to one. The La Follette sentiment there, or what there was of it, died down. Only a few La Follette leaders are opposing Roosevelt now and they don't question his ability to carry the State for Roosevelt. You don't hear Wilson or Taft talked of in Minnesota."

Gordon is one of six candidates in the field in Minnesota for the gubernatorial nomination. With Roosevelt's backing he thinks he has a chance of being the candidate.

MORGAN, HARRIMAN, AND FRICK GAVE

Former Treasurer of Republican Campaign Testifies Before the Committee.

That J. Pierpont Morgan, Henry C. Frick, and E. H. Harriman were contributors to the Republican campaign fund in 1904 was stated as "probable" yesterday by George R. Sheldon, a New York banker and formerly treasurer of the Republican National Committee. Sheldon appeared before the Senate committee investigating campaign contributions.

"Did you get the names of Morgan and Frick from men officially connected with the campaign?" asked Senator Clapp.

"Mr. Frick told me he had contributed," Sheldon answered, "and I had the other information of a member of Morgan's staff that Morgan was a contributor."

"Do you know the amounts contributed by Morgan and Frick?" asked Senator Paynter.

Great Reorganization Sale. Stock to be Reduced $200,000

COMPANY WILL REORGANIZE.

Owing to the reorganization of this corporation, we propose to sell a large quantity of goods at big reductions.

To start with, we intend to sell all stock now on hand at such a deep cut in prices as has not been seen in any special sale ever before held here. We are strengthening our sales forces and putting the delivery department in shape to handle the extra call upon it with dispatch.

In order to meet the wishes and convenience of the public we will begin now the regular Fall Clearance of all stock on hand. By this method we expect to avoid, in a large measure, the delays and other annoyances which seem to be inseparable from the crowding of so dense a volume of business into too short a space of time. We hope, by this arrangement, to give the public better service than ever before in all departments; to avoid rush and hurry on deliveries, and, by extending the period of the sale, to place before our patrons an array of the choicest, up-to-date merchandise such as cannot be excelled in any city of the country.

It is needless to add that the same high standard of quality and fair treatment which has made this house notable for over 50 years will be maintained with jealous care. At all times we will lay before our patrons the very best which the markets of the world afford, at prices that allow only a reasonable margin of profit, without which no legitimate business can be carried on.

To the thousands of patrons here and elsewhere, whose trade and friendship have enabled us to build up the largest and most complete retail furniture establishment in America, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks. We assure them, also, that our highest ambition in the future, as in the past, will be to meet their wishes and to guarantee them absolute and entire satisfaction in every dealing which they may have with this house.

Lists of the goods that will be offered in this Reorganization Sale will be shown daily in our advertisements. On many of our special lines, such as refrigerators, fireless cookers, draperies, curtains, rugs, and matings, we will mail booklets on request.

We cordially invite the public at large to look through the 36 large salesrooms of the store in order to get an idea of the immense stock of high grade goods we are carrying, and the very low prices at which they are being sold during this great Reorganization Sale.

MERRYMAKERS SHAKEN UP.

Seven Seriously Hurt in Coney Street Car Crash.

New York, July 25.—Seven passengers were seriously hurt and hurried about today when a De Kalb Avenue street car, crowded with Coney Island merry-makers, ran into an open switch at Neptune and Coney Island Avenues, Brooklyn.

The car bounced from the rails, plunged along over the roadbed for fifty feet, and came to a halt only when it struck an iron telegraph pole with terrific force. The shock threw the passengers to the floor in a struggling mass, which required several minutes to straighten out. Had it gone fifty feet farther, it would have plunged into the waters of Coney Island Creek.

Body Found by Railway Tracks.

Springfield, Mass., July 25.—The body of Curtis Nichols, of West Newton, a salesman, was found near the Boston and Albany tracks at the West Springfield station today. The body was clad in pajamas. An investigation made by the police caused the belief that Nichols might have committed suicide by climbing out of the window of an express train which left the South station at 11:15 last night.
